

Consent Statement

By booking our activity, you confirm that you understand the nature and risks involved with the activity and programmes being delivered and are satisfied with the level of supervision to be provided.

You understand that for the safety of all participants that rules and instructions must be obeyed.

I acknowledge that participation in outdoor activities carries an inherent risk, and that accidents and injuries can occur without any contributory negligence on behalf of UWC Atlantic staff.

UWC Atlantic staff are qualified and experienced to keep any risk to a recognised minimum.

It is your duty to ensure that the information on booking is accurate and any changes or amendments must be passed onto the member of staff at the earliest opportunity.

Our privacy policy which explains how we retain and store your data and information provided can be found by viewing the following link:

<https://uwcatlanticexperience.com/privacy-policy/>